

Add culture to your life & make a sound investment too!

Seaway News

April 9th 2009

CORNWALL: Join Theresa E. Taylor & Associates Auctioneering on April 10th, 2009 for it's annual Good Friday Art & Collectables auction. Held at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Purcell Road, Glen Walter, Ontario and on-line, this auction is a must see and bid with great opportunities for cultural investments.

"In today's volatile market, art is a good investment", says Theresa Taylor, auctioneer. "We have a wide array of Canadian and European paintings by: Artists; Bernard Pothast, Robert Gemmell Hutchison, William Brymner, Peder Monsted, Hubert Bellis, Carl Reichert, Fritz van der Venne, Norman Brown, Karl E. Wood, and Doreen Jatten

In 2000, a Bernard Pothast, a renowned Dutch painter, oil painting depicting a mother with children titled "The New Toy" was sold for $46,000.00. So many compositions by Pothast reveal a warm family moment featuring a mother and her children. What a wonderful gift for Mother's Day - bid now to own this beautifully painting conveying familial happiness on canvas.

William Brymner 1855-1925 was considered one of Canada's first great art teacher. He taught painting at the Art Association of Montreal, where he became a major influence on the development of Canadian painting. We are giving you an opportunity to buy a bit of Canadian history in his art being offered.

