

Local Auctioneer Honoured

*By Marg Millett - The Glengarry News
Wednesday, February 27, 2002*

Always enthusiastic and interesting, Theresa Taylor of South Lancaster was honoured by the Cornwall Chamber of Commerce last Saturday.

For her outstanding success, Theresa was named Entrepreneur of the Year 2001. Theresa E. Taylor and Associates Auctioneering is a South Lancaster business. As well as running a highly professional ... "to the nth degree"... business, Theresa is very supportive of many good causes in our community. She had no clue that she would be a recipient of this honour. After finishing a very high profile auction in Martintown, Theresa hurried over to the Ramada in Cornwall thinking that she would be doing a small auction just for this event. It wasn't until her name was called that she finally caught on.

Any time that I have had a conversation with Theresa I always learn something new about auctions and am totally impressed by her fierce enjoyment of every aspect of auctioneering. Congratulations Theresa!

If you wish to take a peek at what's going on with Theresa E. Taylor & Associates, just log on to www.theresataylor.com. Theresa tells me that she had about 7,000 visitors to this site in February, in 23 days that is!