

Bid Live or Online; High tech at June 14th auction

www.proxibid.com/theresataylor

We are pleased to partner with Proxibid, a premier provider of live auction webcasting services, for the Begg/McCleary auction featuring an eclectic collection of antiques, collectibles, textiles and art acquired over the last century. The auction will take place Saturday, June 14 at 10:00 a.m. EST. Pre-bidding for this auction is already available at www.proxibid.com/theresataylor.

Now you can attend the auction from the comfort of your own home, hear my voice and bid just like those persons in attendance. You can even just be a spectator, and follow the auction online. I urge you to give it a try and let me know how you liked it.

About Proxibid

Proxibid is the premier provider of live Internet auction webcasting services. With Proxibid, bidders have access to real auctions, with real auctioneers, from the comfort of their home or office. Bidders can view auction catalogs, post pre-bids and participate in real-time Internet bidding via Proxibid's powerful auction portal. As a leading pioneer of live Internet bidding technology, Proxibid continues to lead the marketplace by offering an unparalleled level of customer service and support.

We bring the auction to you where ever you are! Theresa