

Pin up Girl for Team Cornwall

December 17, 2008

I was selected for the new Team Cornwall Trade Show Booth, as I actively promote my community Cornwall, Ontario, Canada. I travel around the world conducting auctions, teaching and helping organizations fundraise, therefore the auction industry is my passion, but my hometown is my pillar of strengths. I can truly declare that the support network of business people in Cornwall has attributed to my success.

This Team Cornwall Trade Show booth was unveiled at the Year End review held Tuesday December 17th, where a report was given by Mark Boileau, of Cornwall Economical Development on all good things Cornwall.
